INSPIRIA MODEL UNITED NATIONS

INVITATION FROM THE SECRETARY GENERAL

Greetings,

In a world where the difference between what's right and wrong no longer exists, where peace has lost its meaning amidst the bedlam of geopolitical conflicts, mobilisation and effective empowerment of the Youth is quintessential. The onus lies upon us not to change what has been done, but to change how it should be done. I, on behalf of Team INMUN, invite you to a congregation of inquisitive minds fuelled by passion, grit and most importantly, an urge to contribute towards a better world. Inspiria MUN is a platform for the youth to voice their opinions, where every individual will traverse through the ruins of history, while analysing the present scenario in order to, craft solutions for the future generations.

Through our simulations we aim to nurture a batch of young diplomats who will spread the wings of awareness while lobbying with like minded minds in a multi cultural setting. Learning from past experience, I can assure each one of you that INMUN will not only give rise to the leader within you, but will also provide you with knowledge about a multitude of topics. In the 21st century, it is imperative for us to equip ourselves with skills that develops us for any and every job profile we aim to choose. That being said, our aim as a team is to provide the scope of holistic development with special emphasis on personality development.

The future demands leaders who are reliable and humane. I believe that INMUN will give us a glimpse of how the future geopolitical scenario might look like and it is safe to admit that with your unequivocal participation, the future is in safe hands. I, once again, cordially invite you to participate in Inspiria MUN and help us achieve a reality which currently seems utopian.

Regards,

Arko Jyoti Mitra

Secretary General
